

CE Marking of Machinery

Aims

This one day course is designed to provide delegates who are responsible for supplying or processing products to which a relevant Directive applies with an understanding of their respective responsibilities.

Objectives

By the end of the course delegates should be able to:

- Outline the objectives of EU product directives
- State the CE marking requirements and processes
- Describe the requirements and content of relevant documents
- Outline their individual and corporate responsibilities as applicable to supply and procurement of relevant articles

Programme summary

- The European Union and European economic area
- Product directives and the objectives of free movement of goods
- CE marking – the process duties of the responsible person meaning of supply
- Essential health and safety requirements
- Transposed harmonised standards
- Conformity assessment
- Declaration of conformity/incorporation
- Technical file
- CE mark
- Case studies

Programme may be subject to change without prior notification